Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: 1) Figure 1
2) Figure 2.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

2. During a telephone conversation with Mr. Joseph Funk on June 15, 2005 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of species 2 (Figure 2), claims 16-17. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-15 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. Claim 16 recites the limitation "the notch" in line 5 of the claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3727

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a and e) as being anticipated by Nagy (6,561,375). Nagy discloses a plurality of disposable plates (Figure 3, column 3, lines 64-66) with a flat central portion (26) and a raised rim (24) with a cutout in the outer edge of the rim (44, Figure 4, column 5, lines 19-20) adaptable to assist in separating the plates.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nagy. Claim 17 recites that the cutout in the rim of each plate is offset with respect to the cutout in the rim of adjacent plates. Nagy discloses the plate system of claim 16 but is silent on the orientation of the cutout in the rims of the plates, however, applicant does not disclose that the orientation of the cutouts relative to each other solves any stated problem or is for any particular purpose. The plurality of plates of Nagy would be inherently capable of being stacked with the cutouts in the rims in any orientation desired relative to each other. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have stacked the plate of Nagy with the cutouts in the rims in any orientation preferred.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Huff (1,938,909) discloses a disposable plate with a rim cutout.
